

Our alumni Fu Tik Wai, Fiona and Yung Wing Chun, Kelvin were awarded the Multi-faceted Excellence Scholarship 2022

With the recommendation from the school, graduates Fu Tik Wai, Fiona and Yung Wing Chun, Kelvin participated in and won the Multi-faceted Excellence Scholarship (MES) 2022 organised by the Home Affairs Bureau. Both of them get outstanding academic performances, exceptional artistic talents and remarkable performances in social services. They are now studying Bachelor of Arts in Architectural Studies at The University of Hong Kong and Medicine (MBChB) Programme at The Chinese University of Hong Kong respectively. As awardees of the Multi-faceted Excellence Scholarship 2022, they study the bachelor programmes of local universities with full subsidies.

The target of the MES is to support universities and tertiary institutions in admitting around 40 local undergraduate students per cohort who excel in sports, arts and / or community service. Secondary school principals are invited to nominate up to two Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education students of their school for the MES.

It is delighted to see that both graduates got recognition in terms of academic performances, artistic talents and social services. Congratulations to Fiona and Kelvin!
