

F.5 Geography Field Trip – The Fluvial Processes of the Hong Kong Stream

F.5 Geography students participated in a field trip course at Ho Koon Nature Education cum Astronomical Centre on 13 October 2022. The course allows students to study the fluvial processes of the Hong Kong stream. Students can explore the changes of characteristics among different courses of the river.

