

3D Meng Sze Yuen was awarded the Certificate of Completion for The second edition of the “Hong Kong Palace Museum Student Ambassador Programme”

The Hong Kong Palace Museum has launched the second edition of the "Hong Kong Palace Museum Student Ambassador Programme" (the Programme) from December 2023 to July 2024. Through various engaging activities, including conservation workshops, field trips, docent training and lectures about palace culture. The programme aims to deepen students' understanding and interest in museum studies, as well as to nurture future arts and cultural talents and museum professionals in Hong Kong.

Meng Sze Yuen, a student from Class 3D, was selected as one of the student ambassadors of the Hong Kong Palace Museum after a competitive interview and selection process. During the programme, Meng demonstrated his diligence and strong performance, successfully completing the training and internship requirements. On July 20, 2024, our Principal Dr. Lau and Meng attended the recognition ceremony, where Meng was awarded a certificate of completion by the organizer in recognition of his achievements.
