

Form 1 "Gratitude and Food Conservation" Poster Creation Competition

Food security ensures that a nation maintains a sufficient and stable food supply to safeguard its people's well-being. As responsible citizens, we must cherish our food. To align with the Chinese Culture Week theme, "Traditional Chinese Food", and to help students understand the effort behind food production and the importance of cherishing it, the school organized a "Gratitude and Food Conservation" Poster Creation Competition for Form 1 students. Through their creativity, students expressed their gratitude for food, resulting in rich and deeply meaningful works.

The following students achieved excellent results in the competition:

1A: Li Tsz Maan Sofia, Zhan Ka Ki Kimi

1B: Chan Yuet Ting Cynthia, Lee Ho Chit Carson

1C: Huang Ching Ki Haru, Wong Tsz Ki Daphene

1D: So Long Ching Jasmine, Yam Hei Yu Rachel
